

BENGT TURNER AWARD

Aim of the Bengt Turner Award

To encourage new researchers to write research papers on housing and urban issues linked to the topics of the ENHR working groups. To increase awareness of ENHR, and keep alive the memory of Bengt Turner.

Eligibility

Papers should

- be linked to ENHR Working Group topics
- not be in the process of publication (sent to publisher or accepted for publication)
- contain original research not more than three years old
- be on a suitable academic/professional level
- add a new perspective to their topic, containing original ideas
- be written by a single author
- be written in English.

Authors should

- be less than 36 years old, OR have received a PhD in the preceding three years
- be based in European country, or have carried out their research in Europe.

Applicants' CVs, which should be submitted with their papers, should contain information demonstrating their eligibility.

Time-table of the BTA process

- The Bengt Turner Award will be announced together with the first announcement of the ENHR conference, with entries (papers and CVs) required by a stipulated date before the conference (this year 1st of March 2010). Submissions are to be sent to the ENHR secretariat.
- The ENHR secretariat will send members of the Coordination Committee all those papers (in anonymous form) that satisfy the conditions.
- By the first of April each member of the Coordination Committee will nominate the three papers they think are best. At the Spring meeting of the Coordination Committee the winners will be decided.
- In April, the Coordination Committee will contact the winner of the BTA to make arrangements for his/her participation in the ENHR conference.
- The winner of the BTA will be announced in a formal ceremony at the ENHR conference in June/July.
-

The content of the Bengt Turner Award

The winner of the Bengt Turner Award will receive:

- waiver of the conference fee,
- a contribution towards his/her flight and hotel costs in connection with the conference
- the opportunity to present the paper in plenary session (if appropriate)
- advice from senior researchers about submitting the paper for publication in the European Journal of Housing Policy
- a special certificate in a decorative frame
- a one-year membership subscription to ENHR and
- a report about them in the ENHR Newsletter.

For more information about the Bengt Turner Award please contact the ENHR Secretariat at enhr@inbf.uu.se.